DOUBLE WEDDING.

Most Notable Event of the Season in Charlotte County.

Charlotte County.

MADISONVILLE, VA., Nov. 20.—Special.—Rarely has a church presented a more beautiful and entrancing scene than did Centenary Methodist church on Wednesday affernoon, November 20, 188, when the nuptials of Miss Ressie W. Ford and Mr. Charles Oscar Finch, Miss Mary L. Ford and Mr. William Atlas Finch were solemnized. The ceremony, which made four hearts beat as two, was most impressively performed by Rev. J. Sidney Peters, of the Methodist Church.

The brides were handsomely attired in going-away gowns of blue Venetian cloth, talor-made. Although dressed alike, they presented a striking and charming contrast, one being a blonde and the other a brunette. Never did their beauty and stately figures show off to a

The church was very tastefully decorated under the direction of Mrs. L. C.
Daniel. In the middle of the aisle was an improvised double gate, covered with experiences. This was opened for the evergreens. This was opened for the bridal cortege by two little girls, Irene M. DeFord and Virginta H. Pugh, both wearing white organdles and carrying flowers.

The bridesmaids were white organdles, with pink and blue ribbons alternating. One of the most attractive features of this noteworthy occasion was Miss Bessie Daniel's delightful singing just before the bridal procession entered the church. She sang in her rich, clear voice, "A Dream," by J. C. Bartlett, and never did any one do better justice to the attuning of heart and soul to melody.

Miss Nannie Dinwiddle vendered the usual wedding marches on the organ in an able and appreciative manner. The bridesmaids were white Congressional Action on Race Riots Washington. Nov. 29.—Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, it is understood, will offer at the coming session a resolution for the appointment of a special committee to investigate the recent race riots in the South. If the resolution is not adopted, or if no legislation is the result of the investigation, the Senator will press the matter at the opening of the Fifty-sixth Congress, when the Ropublicans will have a strong majority in the Senate. At the opening of that Congress the Wilmington riots will be brought to the attention of the House by means of the contested election case of Dockery against Bellamy from the Wilmington district. The latter will probably be unseated.

RICHMOND SOLDIERS.

The Pleasant Meeting of Virginia Boys

One of the pleasantest of the man-Army Corps was the luncheon served to Companies II and M of the Fourth Virginia. These two companies, before they were mustered into the ranks of funcie Sam, formed the Richmond Light Infantry Blues, a famous old command that did good service in the 60 s. Its present representatives are noted throughout the whole corps for their manly and dignified beaving and reflect credit on the Sales from which they joyed by all its participants. The ta-bies were prellily decorated with many chrysanthemum, roses, and other flow-ers, to which were added greens of all descriptions gathered by the boys the massives. The national colors min-gied with Virginia's flag floating in the breeze. An abundance of good things adorned the table and at the close of the feast each man received flowers and digars, specially contributed. A photocigars, specially contributed. A photograph of the soldiers and their failed before was taken before dispersion helpers was taken before dispersing and will form a pleasant souvenir of this very interesting event. A harny little speech of thanks was made by a member of Company M, and then this unusual episade in the soldiers' trustine was a thing of the past. Three rousing cheers, a tiger, and the company yell were given with a great heartiness for the ladless. The many expressions of appreciation and gratitude heard on all sides showed the effort of the ladies were not in vain and only good can result from this hospitality shown to the stranger within our gates.
